

Evaluate School Web Sites

1. What major content areas do they offer?
2. What are the targeted audiences for their web site?
3. Can you easily tell which of their pages are designed for the different targeted audiences?
 yes no
4. Do they include contact information on their home page as well as on their referring pages?
 yes no
5. Did you find any "orphan" pages?
 yes no
6. Do they use a common design and color theme throughout their site?
 yes no
7. Can you navigate easily from one content area to the next?
 yes no
8. Did this site employ good principles of design?
 yes no
9. What kind of interaction or feedback do they offer the different users (quizzes, feedback forms, message boards, etc.)?
10. What makes this site rich in content?